Eagles double up, keep Mark Kropf momentum going BOSTON — The Boston Eagles took home their second straight national title last weekend when they went to Niagara Falls, Ont., and took home the UPA Metro Championship. They left with a 7-2 record after the split-squad championship game and now they're back on the ice for the Roger Bauman Memorial Pro Hockey Tournament. Coach Darren Quinn will be starting his Eagles a little later than he would have liked because of work commitments, but he's still busy as usual with recruiting and with finding players to fill the void left when he was unavailable. "You can't even imagine how excited I am," said Quinn, a former Boston Eagle. "I haven't been in Boston, and I've never been to K.C. So, it's a pretty nice treat to get back to where my hockey started." The tournament consists of the top four teams from the UPA's Metro North League, the Boston University Terriers, the University of Maine Black Bears and Mercyhurst. The ECAC North team played an 8-1 victory over Maine on Friday, and Mercyhurst and the Terriers will play each other in Saturday's first round. Boston University got by Mercyhurst, 4-3
