(Courtesy photo) With a mission to ensure that the city's neighborhoods are stocked with healthy and affordable food, Smart Grocery is expanding. The company, based in the Pleasant Hill neighborhood, is planning to open two more locations this summer: one on Martin Luther King Jr. Way and one on Potomac Avenue in the Capitol Heights neighborhood. Smart Grocery is the brainchild of Nick Nguyen, who co-owns both the Pleasant Hill and Capitol Heights locations. For the past seven years, Nguyen, 24, has been serving food to customers in the city's neighborhoods, generally by bicycle, food cart or van
