You've probably gone to bed after midnight, when you realize that you've forgotten something. You brush your teeth, make yourself a little iced coffee, and slide out of bed. You head to the kitchen and turn the light on. You grab your keys and then pick up the phone. You hit the button to call someone. Then at the last minute, you pause and stand up, and your heart sinks. This is it, right? If your cell phone dies in the middle of the night, you
