Nadeem Shravan. To find out more about the author, including information about where to download the book, we welcome your comments and suggestions about this article. In the late 1300s, the Moslem Ottoman Empire conquered most of Europe and North Africa. As a result, the Eastern Church (known as the Byzantine Empire) was cut off from the West. To bridge the gap, religious orders were founded in both the East and the West with the primary purpose of intercultural understanding. We share our shringar items, and sometimes, our shringar items distribution in hindu ashramas. The items are of nice, smooth, shiny silver, and very beautiful in appearance.
