... He lay there and felt something change all around him. It was as if a huge nail had been pulled out of his head that had been nailed to the rock there on the island. The nail was huge and hard to pull out, and now his hands were hurting and the pain in his head was getting worse and worse. - What is it? - he whispered, struggling to move his swollen, cotton-padded tongue. - It's us," a voice said, the last he had heard in his life. - We're here. He lifted his head to see two men. They were his captors.
