We are going to take a look at what's new in the updated WhatsApp version, and see how it could benefit you, the user. How many times have you wished to get in touch with your friend, but have been unable to do so, because the number in their contacts is too low? Or do you need to send a message or a picture to a friend without getting the email notification? These are just some of the reasons why WhatsApp is so popular. It has several advantages when compared to other communication apps, such as social media platforms. WhatsApp aims to turn smartphones into business and personal hubs. By that we mean that the app allows you to send several types of messages, in addition to pictures and videos, via group chats. The updated WhatsApp version allows us to chat via the iOS and Android versions of the app, which we can use from the Computer, Laptop, Desktop, and even the web browser. We can choose a chat format, which includes both text and emoji, one-on-one, group chats and even secret chats. The app also comes with a conversation view, as well as the ability to download and send videos, messages, and images. If you're not sure where to get WhatsApp from, you can find it in several app stores. WhatsApp for Android Description: WhatsApp is the most popular instant messaging app in the world. With this updated version, we can use WhatsApp on our smartphones to send and receive messages.

Now you can customize keyboard shortcuts in Google Chrome. Simply highlight the keyboard shortcut you want to customize, press Ctrl+A, then click Add shortcut key. Finally, press Ctrl+S to save the changes. Bingo! In this new version of the Bingo extension, users can get a full list of Bingo games with ready-made games and a few minutes to guess and win. This Bingo add-on for Chrome allows you to have a Bingo game. You can even add your own images to the cards. This extension gives users access to over 1,000 Bingo cards. The menu bar, the most important part of the extension, gives us quick access to many options and tools. The first one is to check if the game is a live game, which means that users can play the game as it is being broadcast by the website. The second option is to choose the level of difficulty and the number of tries. The Settings section allows users to check how long a game will take to start, the number of days to keep the collected data, whether or not users can edit the created cards and much more. Another very interesting option is the one that allows us to choose a theme that matches the game, whether we want to add images to the card, etc. Enjoy Bingo from any website and search any topic without leaving the browser window. Also, the add-on is ad-free and virus-free. This Bingo extension for Google Chrome includes the tools and features to start playing games right away. It is completely free for use. REAL YT YT-SEO-AUTO-TAG Description: With this plug-in for Chrome, we can make YouTube videos search engine friendly. The extension offers a full list of useful features, and the most important is the option to save an online video. We can either let YouTube save the video automatically or set a fixed time for the automatic saving. Also, we can save thumbnails or anything related to a video. If we select "Save to disk" option, we will be able to download videos automatically. This extension can also be used to automatically add the tags we select to the videos we save. When we hover over a tag we wish to assign to a video, we will see a pop-up window that offers us the option to add that tag or choose a custom one. Besides, we can also insert the embed codes for the videos, even those from other websites. 2edc1e01e8

Easily change YouTube settings like quality, autoplating, and the way videos play. You can also easily take screenshots, download thumbnails, and make user images squared. [2][3] Youtube Downloader | YTD Downloader - Tuto simplement no funciona (Nota de error que me aparece). Yo siempre se lo guardo en la consola del SO... Yo no se si vosotros os habéis atascado en el mismo sitio. Si es así, intentad reiniciar la plataforma y ver si ahí está la solución. Muchas gracias. If this is the case, try the Windows task manager and make sure the Simple HTML Downloader is stopped. I will keep looking into it for you! Thank you for your help! . . . You may need to reset the extension. . . In Chrome, go to your extensions settings, find the Simple HTML Downloader and click on the Reset button. . . . You may also need to check the permissions. . . I am not sure about this, but maybe a better option would be to go to your extensions settings and set permissions to ask me every time I click on a link or open a file from your computer. . . . Open your Google Chrome browser. . . . Click on the 3-dots icon in the top-right corner. . . . Click on the overflow menu and select Manage extensions. . . . Click on the Simple HTML Downloader. . . . Under the Permissions section, click on Edit. . . . Make sure it is set to ask for the permission every time. . . . Make sure to tick the Continue button (I believe it will already be checked, but double-check that). . . . Try to see if this solves your issue. If it does not, I will try to help you find out more about it. . . . Try to disable and re-enable the extension. . . . Make sure to try the extension first. . . . If you need help with the extension

What's New in the?

You love watching YouTube videos, but hate the ads? Iridium is the ideal Chrome extension for you. Iridium for Chrome focuses on increasing user's experience on YouTube by tweaking the platform's visuals. Among other tweaks, you will find the ability to play videos when moving the mouse over their thumbnails, make user's images squared, download thumbnails and take screenshots, access more detailed information about videos in the "About this video" section, and make user's video view count public. Iridium for Chrome also features a Settings panel accessible from the browser's toolbar, that allows you to change the way you view YouTube. You can either set it to be the default YouTube page, between Home, Trending, and Subscription, or select the default channel tab, between Home, Videos, Playlists, and so on. What's more, Iridium places a series of quick-action buttons below the video player that let us perform other actions, including taking screenshots, downloading thumbnails, and activating autoplay. Features -> Play videos when moving the mouse over thumbnails -> Access the default YouTube page, between Home, Trending, and Subscription, or the default channel tab, between Home, Videos, Playlists, and so on -> View YouTube's video details in the "About this video" section, including such info as the uploader's bio, the video's duration, its views, comments, likes, dislikes, likes rate, and favorites count -> Increase your YouTube video view count and get your subscribers' attention -> Download the YouTube thumbnails of your subscribed videos -> Take a screenshot when a video is activated or a comment is posted -> Enable, disable or show ads only on videos from subscribed channels -> Only allow HFR on videos with fps rate>= 60 -> Allow HFR on non-1080p videos -> Enable, disable or show subtitles only on videos from subscribed channels -> Autoplay on videos from subscribed channels What's in the new Version: -> Option to disable HFR (High-Frequency Range) playback -> Option to download the YouTube thumbnails of your subscribed videos -> Option to clear the cache of videos on YouTube after they are downloaded -> Option to enable a menu bar on the videos you watch (not available in the previous version) -> Option to watch videos only from the channels we subscribed to -> Option to disable
